Robin Kaiser is passionate about the law and providing unmatched service to her clients. Prior to becoming a lawyer, she worked as a paralegal. Robin began her practice in family law, where she helped clients with dissolution of marriage, child custody, child support, and maintenance cases. When she refocused her practice area on estate planning, her experience working with families gave Robin a unique perspective on issues of estate planning and elder law. She is passionate about helping families facing tragedy and loss. Robin is active in her community and is a member of a number of professional organizations, including: the Missouri Bar, Wealth Counsel, Elder Counsel and The Bar Association of Metropolitan St. Louis. She currently uses her enthusiasm for education to serve on the Leadership Counsel for the School of Arts and Sciences of Maryville University.
